

Main Event Agenda

9:00 – 9:30	Registration
Session I – State of the market
Day moderator: Annaleena Mäkilä, Managing Director, Finnish Port Association ^{CONFIRMED}
9:30 – 11:00	Opening speeches Bogdan Ołdakowski, CEO, Actia Forum ^{CONFIRMED} Wojciech Szczurek, Mayor, City of Gdynia ^{CONFIRMED} Ryszard Świlski, Deputy Marshall, Pomeranian Voivodeship ^{CONFIRMED}
	Port market analysis and 2030 prognosis – main drivers and disruptors Bogdan Ołdakowski, CEO, Actia Forum ^{CONFIRMED}
	Port to port partnerships between US and Europe – what can be gained? Christopher Quinn, Vice President of International Affairs, Wexford Strategies ^{CONFIRMED}
	China’s investments in European ports. Risks and opportunities for the Baltic Sea region James Kyritsis, Senior Consultant, Drewry ^{CONFIRMED}
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
Session II – Investment projects on the catwalk
11:30 – 13:00	Vision 2020 – Port of Gdynia’s development projects Maciej Krzesiński, Director of Marketing and International Cooperation, Port of Gdynia ^{CONFIRMED}
	Thinking ahead – DCT Gdańsk and its 3-year expansion plan Dominik Landa, Commercial Director, DCT Gdańsk ^{CONFIRMED}
	How to smartly leverage technology and data in your terminal design process Jarno Kuipers, Senior Manager, Terminal Design Services Automation and Project Division, Kalmar ^{CONFIRMED}
	On-shore power supply – a key point on the development agenda of an environmentally conscious port Alan Arent, Business Development Manager, Actemium ^{CONFIRMED}
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch
Session III – Financing the future
14:30 – 15:45	Port development projects as a part of EU’s 2021 – 2027 budget Paweł Wojciechowski, European Coordinator, European Commission ^{CONFIRMED}
	An overview of a maritime investor’s best practices – what to look out for in the coming years? Anthony van der Hoest, Director Commerce, MTBS ^{CONFIRMED}
	Discussion panel: Specific answers to particular needs – port development and financing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Paweł Wojciechowski, European Coordinator, European Commission^{CONFIRMED} – Piotr Nowak, Vice-President of the Managing Board, Port of Gdynia^{CONFIRMED} – Isabelle Ryckbost, Secretary General, ESPO^{CONFIRMED} – Thomas Bendtsen, CEO, Port of Rønne^{CONFIRMED}

15:45 – 16:15	Networking coffee
Evening cocktail
19:00 – 21:00	Muzeum Emigracji w Gdyni Ul. Polska 1 Gdynia
Evening cocktail bus schedule
18:15 – 18:30	First group of guests gathers at the front entrance to the conference venue and leaves for the cocktail venue
18:45 – 19:00	Second group of guests gathers at the front entrance to the conference venue and leaves for the cocktail venue
21:15 – 21:30	First group gathers and leaves for the trip back to the conference venue
21:30 – 21:45	Second group gathers and leaves for the trip back to the conference venue

9:00 – 9:30 | Registration

Session I – Smart and digitalized: ports for the new era

Day moderator: Kris Kosmala, Director Smart Port Operations Digital Services, Royal HaskoningDHV^{CONFIRMED}

Challenges and benefits linked to embracing digitalization in ports

Isabelle Ryckbost, Secretary General, ESPO^{CONFIRMED}

9:30 – 10:45

The smart thing to do – SMART Ports concept as a key to future development

Kris Kosmala, Director Smart Port Operations Digital Services, Royal HaskoningDHV^{CONFIRMED}

Step by step towards a digital port

Jan Gardeitchik, Senior Lead Digitization, Port of Rotterdam^{CONFIRMED}

10:45 – 11:15

Coffee Break

Session II – Ports: the cradle of innovation

Next-gen transport & logistics: A round-up of tech-infused solutions for the maritime, rail, and road industries

Przemek Myszka, Editor-in-Chief, Baltic Transport Journal^{CONFIRMED}

11:15 – 12:30

GBAS-RTK, precise mooring system

Wojciech Tucholitz, NavSim^{CONFIRMED}

Additional presentations to be confirmed

12:30 – 13:30

Lunch

